

Consultation Summary

A public consultation for the proposed merger of Brooke House Sixth Form College (BSix) and New City College opened on Thursday 28 March 2024 and closed at midnight on Wednesday 8 May 2024. The consultation was arranged in accordance with the UK Government regulations for the publication of proposals for dissolution of further education corporations.

Three external responses were received from:

- A member of the public
- A community arts organisation
- A local authority

Responses raised questions which have been answered. Questions pertained to funding, shared best practice, educational provision and community engagement. No issues for concern have been raised, which would affect progress of the proposed merger.

Thank you to all who engaged with the public consultation for the proposed merger of BSix and New City College.
